Will Rogers Remarks:

SCRANTON (Pa.) Dec. 13.—[To The Los Angeles Times:] See where the female secretary of my friend Dan Moody, Governor-elect of Texas, has traded her typewriter for an automatic and been doing a little trick and fancy bank robbing in between dictations. If she will plead guilty and get in jail before Ma Ferguson's time expires, on January 1, Ma will pardon her.

WILL ROGERS.

But Solemnly Assures Jury

Liquor Taken Away Declared

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13. (P)—"During all the time I was prohibition administrator I never once consumed a drop of liquor confiscated by the government, nor did any of my friends drink it, nor did any of my friends get any of it."

This was the answer of Col. Ned M. Green, deposed prohibition administrator for Northern California and Nevada, when he took the stand in the United States District Court here today to answer charges of having diverted to his own use intoxicating liquors seized by the government in raids on bootlegging establishments.

Squaring up the jury box, Col. Green delivered his statement with deliberate emphasis. A few minutes before, with the same deliberate emphasis, he had admitted:

"I couldn't see the reason for destroying good liquors when they could be used for the benefit of the aged and ailing," he explained. "I once recall seeing several truckloads of good liquor being carted away to a dump for destruction."

Col. Green said he issued orders that "good liquor" be set aside to meet the demands of hospitals, old soldiers' homes and other institutions.

QUEEN TOLD TO LEAVE

Rumania Visitor
Incurs Wrath

Marie of Jugo-Slavia Said
to Have Meddled in State Affairs

"Man Behind the Throne" Accused of Causing
Loss of Papers

BUCHAREST, Dec. 11. (Exclusive)—Queen Marie of Rumania, second daughter of Queen Marie and King Ferdinand of Rumania, is being hustled home to her people.

Although the old King's condition does not warrant her leaving at such a time, Queen Marie (the daughter) will be shipped to Belgrade in the next few days, virtually as an undesirable. For, resentful over her meddling in matters concerning the succession to the throne, the Rumanian government has made representations to Belgrade to have her recalled.

The Serbian Minister at Bucharest did not deny Marie's imminent departure, but protested vigorously against the implication that she had been tampering with Rumanian affairs, which is a pretty tough business now that Rumania, which under Premier Averescu has been flirting with Italy, regards Jugo-Slavia with a shrewd eye.

FAMILY PLOTS
The Jugo-Slavian Queen's practical expulsion throws into strong relief the fantastic situation at Cotroceni Palace, where King Ferdinand lies too near death to be comfortable, while his predominantly petticoated family plots and counter-plots for the spoils after his death.

There are three Queens, the eldest, Marie, Elizabeth, the oldest and favorite daughter, who is the former Queen of Greece, the Queen of Rumania, Prince Carol's Greek wife, and the Queen of Rumania, Prince Carol's Rumanian wife.

Marie, about her brother, as she has always been, despite his wild ways, the Queen of Jugo-Slavia, is playing a game of hide-and-seek with the Rumanian government, trying both to discredit the regency and create a means for Prince Carol's return.

EX-QUEEN AIDS HER
Allied with her is ex-Queen Elizabeth. She heartily disapproves of Prince Carol's treatment of his wife, and has been to what she knows as her father's secret desires, and is canvassing the little world of courtiers, soldiers and politicians in her brother's interests.

From his country place at Florica, Prince Carol, in constant telegraphic and radio communication with the capital, John Bratianu, Rumania's premier, is trying to bring about a change in the Rumanian government.

It is the otherwise amusing business of the Rumanian monarchy, in which the Queen stands between Queen Marie and her old rival, Prince Carol, who is now in the hands of the Rumanian government.

ELEVEN DIE IN STORMS

Texas Panhandle Has Snow;
Central States Prepare
for Bad Cold Snap

CHICAGO, Dec. 13. (P)—From the Aleutians to the Alleghenies winter clamped its bitter grip today, accompanied by zero weather and heavy snow.

A cold wave whirling across the Northern United States sent temperatures tumbling to the zero mark and buried the northwestern plains under a fall of snow which impeded traffic and caused accidents and deaths.

Tonight the fall in temperature made itself felt across Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Michigan and the first below-zero weather of the winter was promised before morning in all the Central States. To the west, over the area crossed earlier today and last night by the storm wave, thermometers recorded temperatures ranging from 6 below zero in Sioux City, Iowa, to 21 below zero at Wilder, Mont. Half a dozen points in Minnesota and the Dakotas reported 20 deg. or more under the zero mark.

ELEVEN PERISH
Deaths attributed to the storm struck tonight at eleven. Two aged men were frozen to death in Minnesota and Iowa, overcome by cold near their homes, while Colorado reported two deaths and Montana one in the storm, to increase the total from the four deaths in the Pacific Northwest and two in Canada reported earlier today.

Drops of 45 deg. in temperature were reported from many communities. At Yankton, S. D., the temperature fell 66 deg. in eighteen hours, and the Weather Bureau reported drops of 40 to 50 deg. tonight in parts of Illinois, Michigan and Indiana.

In Minnesota, where drifts ten feet deep were reported in places, passengers of a train bound for the Twin Cities were stranded by the snow when the engine was derailed, to get to a relief train.

DEALS IN OIL TOLD JURY

Doheny Listens to Self Played
Government Counsel in Review of Asserted Bribe
Paid to Fall

Defense Will Commence on Argument in Lease
Charges Today

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13. (Exclusive)
Owen J. Roberts of Philadelphia, special counsel for the government, marshaled
the evidential facts in the long record of the Doheny case before the jury for three hours this afternoon and then offered
to give the jurors a rest until morning.

"What is the pleasure of the jurors?"
asked Justice Hoshing.
"Go on now," said the jurors in chorus. They were leaning forward
following intently the plea which was not an emotional display but a
low voiced, careful threading together
of the evidence upon which the government hopes to send Edward L. Doheny and Albert B. Fall to the penitentiary for their asserted corrupt bargain to despoil the Navy of its reserve oil fields in California.

The defense will have its day tomorrow and the closing argument for
the government will come on Wednesday.
DOHENY HEARS PLEA
Mr. Doheny, one of America's richest men, sat in this court and heard
his motives in making a loan of $100,000 to Fall in 1921, analyzed,
his intent described as one of greed
for more oil fields and profits, his
doctrine that he had a perfect right
to use his money in the way described as subversive of the functions of government, as meaning the end of honest government in the United States.

His wealth has been estimated at
from $100,000,000 to $200,000,000. He had testified that he could have given Fall a million as well as $100,000.
The government counsel mentioned
Doheny's hiring of the late Secretary
Lane, his employment of former Secretary McAdoo, his payments to Leo Black and George Creel to get them
to use influence with former Secretary Daniels to get Teapot Dome leased.

"He did not even realize that it
was wrong to have financial dealings with an officer of the government with whom he was going to negotiate government contracts," said
Mr. Roberts. "Such a doctrine means
the end of honest government in America. Hold that picture in your mind."

KEEPS TO FACT
Then, step by step, reading always
from the record, keeping so close to
fact that the defense attorney was in objections but once, and that on a date, Mr. Roberts wove together the threads of the oil-lease negotiations
through the Navy and Interior departments, keeping Fall and Doheny
always in the direct background,
working always, he said, toward the consummation finally achieved, the
turning over of a principal in oil
reserves worth $100,000,000 to the Doheny interests.

Granted Decree in Suit Against Guard Official

LONDON (Q.) Dec. 13. (AP)—Mrs.
Dorothy Canfield Cheseldine, formerly of Los Angeles, recently was granted a divorce in Madison County Court from Lieut.-Col. Raymond M.
Cheseldine, it became known today.
The action, based on grounds of gross
neglect, was not contested.

Mrs. Cheseldine is a member of a prominent Los Angeles family and sister of Mrs. Tony Moreno. Col.
Cheseldine is assistant director of the National Guard in the United States. He was at one time prominent in state politics, serving as Republican State central committeeman and on the staff of Gov. Davis.
They were married about eleven
years ago and have three children.

Mrs. Cheseldine was the former Dorothy Canfield, adopted daughter of the late Charles A. Canfield, multillionaire oil and mining man and philanthropist, who died in 1913. Mrs.
Cheseldine was taken into the Can-field home in 1920 after she had been abandoned by her father on the streets of Washington, and became known as Dorothy Canfield in 1924.
When Canfield was appointed her legal guardian.

Dorothy Canfield's wedding in June,
1918, was a social event in the city.
She had announced her engagement to Raymond Cheseldine of London.
Only a day previous to her marriage.

MILLIONS ASKED FOR FARM WORK

Agriculture Department Bill Carries $128,362,000
Sum Almost $5,000,000
Under Budget

Jardine Explains Items to House Committee

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13. (AP)—Creation of two substitute bureaus to separate research and regulatory activities of the chemistry and soil divisions of the Department of Agriculture was provided for in the department's appropriation bill, carrying $128,362,000, reported today by the House.

Of the total amount appropriated
in the bill, nearly $80,000,000 was for maintenance of Federal aid in highways system and many millions more
to continue the relentless war against insect pests. The total was $77,812
above current funds, but $4,774,000
below budget estimates. The reduction was effected by paring down
highway funds and authorizing use of unexpended monies previously appro-riated.

JARDINE EXPLAINS
Secretary Jardine appeared before
the House Appropriations Committee
which drafted the bill and recommended consolidation of the bureaus
of chemistry and soil into the Bureau of Chemistry and Soils. He said that to the new bureau would be transferred all the research activities
of the two units, plus a food, drug
and insecticide administration would be created to conduct the regulatory
or police work.

Research work and regulatory
work do not mix any more than war
and oil, he said. "We have just grown up that way and we have developed to a point now where we think regulatory work ought to be in a department by itself, rather than being in with research work."

Appropriations for the two new bureaux totaled only $20,000 more than
for the original divisions, the increase
to be used in investigating plant-dust
explosions and farm fires which last
year cost $300 lives and $10,000,000
in property, and in enforcement of the Naval Stores Act.

ACTIVITIES PLANNED
Material increases over current funds were provided for seed and cattle
diseases, including $400,000 more for additional endorsement to agricultural experiment stations, making the total $1,920,000; $1,200,000 for eradication of tuberculosis, total $4,878,000;
$10,000 for blight, total $233,500;
$471,500; $200,000 for eradication of European corn-borer, total $688,100;
$180,000 for Japanese-beetle control,
total $468,000; $200,000 for co-operation with States to control forest
fires, total $1,000,000.

Included in the appropriations for combating various pests were $712,
300 for eradicating cattle ticks;
$147,700, orchard diseases; $150,000,
cotton and truck diseases; $207,300,
cereal and forage insects; $292,300,
southern field crop insects; $78,500,
forest insects; $184,600, truck crop
insects; $870,000, preventing spread
of moths; $23,500, Mexican bean
beet control.

The bill would authorize the Bureau of Animal Industry to pay for
continued parasite control cattle.
The committee said it was necessary
to certify immediately cattle found suffering from the disease, which stimulates intestinal tuberculosis.

MEXICO INFESTED
Of the bureau's appropriation,
$5000 would be used in inspecting cattle imported from Mexico, where,
the committee reported, authorities
have not succeeded in stamping out
the foot-and-mouth disease.
The Weather Bureau's part in supplying information to commercial
aviation caused a $38,800 increase
in its appropriation to $233,500,
or investigation of atmospheric phenomena.

The $1,210 increase in the appropriation of $292,300 for combating south field-crop insects is to be used against the cotton hopper,
the boll weevil, the Mexican cotton worm, and the bollworm, which has caused much damage in Arizona.

For eradication of the pink boll
worm the measure provided $243, 800, or $57,500 less than current funds, while $33,600 is recommended
with which to combat the bollworm, Thurberia weevil, which has caused
much damage in Arizona.

Dancing Teacher Maintains Bank
Note Was Pay, Not Loan

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13. (Exclusive)—Difference of opinion over a $3000 check emanating from Los Angeles a year ago, were partly aired
in the court of Judge Cabaniss today.
The check came from the Imperial Russian Ballet studios, with headquarters in Los Angeles, and was given to Miss Estelle Reed, teacher
of classical dancing in the local studio.

Vera Fedova, associated with Theodore Kosloff, dancer, teacher and motion-picture artist, filed suit against Miss Reed on the ground that the check was a loan. Miss Reed testified today that the check and his studio
owed her $2000 at the time the check
was sent and insisted that the $3000
was in payment of services.

COACH COMPARES TWO SYSTEMS OF ATTACK

Former Method of Offense Effective Against Foes, Declares Jones; Kick Formations Aid Tide

BY HOWARD JONES
U.S.C. Football Coach

Contrasting the two systems of attack which will be employed by Stanford and Alabama in their New Year game in the Rose Bowl, it will be my endeavor to discuss the points of each method of offense.

Stanford's attack is based upon the long kick formation, while Alabama's is based upon the short kick formation.

The 1926 Pacific battle foot boxing and wrestling championships will be held following the Christmas holidays, according to an announcement made by navy athletic officials yesterday. The mat and ring contests will be held in the football field at Point Ferrel.

There will be eight boxing bouts of six rounds each ranging from the flyweight class to the heavyweight division. Lieut. Duke Kenworthy, the navy's foremost boxing referee, will handle all eight bouts, while Lieut. "Pop" Henderson from the New Mexico will referee the mat bouts.

ALABAMA'S BACKFIELD ACES

Jimmy Johnson, top, Tolbert "Red" Brown, middle, and Capt. Emil "Red" Barnes are the bright lights of the Crimson Tide attack. All three played against Washington last year. Johnson was a backfield sub, while Brown, a brother of Johnny Mack Brown, performed at end. He has been shifted to the backfield. Herschell Caldwell has been the fourth backfield man for Alabama this year. Coach Wallace Wade has plenty of other good ball carriers.

ALABAMA LOOKS AT CARD PLAYS

Frosh Eleven Uses Stanford Attack in Scrimmage

Crimson Tide Working Hard for Pasadena Battle

Southerners to See Wilson and Hubert in Action

BY BOB PHILLIPS
TUSCALOOSA (Ala.) Dec. 13. (Exclusive)—Alabama's Crimson Tide got its first taste today of what the Stanford Cardinals might be expected to pull on them at Pasadena on New Year's Day, for Shorpy Proctor's freshman, tutoring in Stanford tactics as the frosh coach observed them in California, tried their hand against the Crimson Tide.

The Crimson Tide found nothing especially baffling in the Stanford stuff, at least in the way in which the battle was conducted.

But therein lies a tale, for the freshman eleven at Alabama is no wise a worthy understudy of the Stanford championship crew. Furthermore, for Warner, whose craftiness is well known to Wallace Wade, is not expected to try the regulation 1926 Stanford offensive maneuvers exclusively when Alabama faces his boys.

Wade realizes that, but the chief reason for the change is that the team has a lot of talent and is well-coached.

RABBIT PUNCHES

SMITH POINTS OUT THAT WHENEVER THE SAN FRANCISCO REGION SUPPLIES ONE OF THE TEAMS FOR THIS "CHAMPIONSHIP STRUGGLE" THE NORTH MUST TO THE GAME AT LEAST EVERY OTHER YEAR.

Mister Smith forgets several things in this connection. Pasadena has never called its East-West classic a championship game, although it has always endeavored to secure the champions of the Coast along with the best in the East. However, it has not taken champions to make the East-West game what it is today.

If Mr. Smith wants his champions to stay home he can keep 'em. We like 'em, but we don't have to have 'em. Neither Penn State nor U.S.C. had any championship spangles hanging on 'em in 1925, but they played to a big mob, nevertheless, and everybody had a swell time.

The funny part of it is that Brother Smith is finding opposition, right on his own door mat, to his post-season games in the north. A Stanford official came out flat-footed and said the (Continued on Page 2, Column 5)

LANDIS SALARY BOOST KNOCKED

Moguls Figure Judge Gets Enough Dough Now

Magnates Favor Re-election of Ball Czar

Plan Late Closing Date for Next Season

NEW YORK, Dec. 13. (AP)—A proposed salary increase of $10,000 for Baseball Commissioner Landis was received without enthusiasm today by National League club owners.

Although the magnates unanimously favor re-election of Landis to another term of seven years, they indicated today on the eve of their annual meeting that the circuit will oppose a move to boost his salary to $80,000 annually.

Furthermore, they feel that the commissioner should increase the usefulness of his advisory council, which includes the National League president and the American League vice-president, league spokesmen said.

The magnates will go into session at 1 o'clock in the afternoon with President John A. Heydler, who will ask the owners to draft regulations to govern the annual selection of the league's champion batsman.

Indications are that the league will approve opening the season on April 13 and concluding on October 3, thus returning to the late closing date in effect last year. Barney Dreyfuss of Pittsburgh, spokesman for the National League schedule-makers, said the September 25 closing date tried out this year had proved unsatisfactory. Only one club in each league, he explained, had been able to complete play on scheduled time, and the world series was not advanced as Commissioner Landis hoped it would be.

Even Landis has been won over to the late closing plan, Dreyfuss said. Dreyfuss announced he would carry his fight against "farming" to the joint meeting of the two leagues later this week in Chicago. He complained that one National League team alone owns six minor league clubs, which he described as not only unfair to other owners, but to the minor league players.

"We preach the draft, but we practice the 'farm,'" he complained. "We're just a bunch of hypocrites."

JERSEY BAN IS HUNG ON ROSENBERG

Bantamweight King Forced Off Christmas Program by Illinois Suspension

NEWARK (N. J.) Dec. 13. (AP)—Charley (Phil) Rosenberg, bantamweight boxing champion of the world, who was scheduled to take part in a Christmas benefit bout at Jersey City on December 20, will be barred from all contests in New Jersey, so long as the ban against him in Illinois remains in force. Fiat Adams, boxing commissioner here, announced tonight.

The New Jersey and Illinois commissions have a mutual agreement, the commissioner said. Rosenberg and his manager were barred by the Illinois officials after an alleged unsatisfactory performance last September.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13. (AP)—Reggie McNamara, "Iron Man" of the professional bicycle riders, and his Italian partner, Pietro Linari, today split $12,000 as the winning share of the $75,000 in prize money and bonuses awarded to the competitors in the six-day race that finished at Madison Square Garden Saturday night.

JOCK MALONE LOSES BOUT
ROCHESTER (N. Y.) Dec. 13. (AP)—Oak Till of Rochester, N. Y., won the decision over Jock Malone of St. Paul, in ten rounds here tonight. Till was one of Gene Tunney's sparring partners while the former marine was training for his championship battle with Jack Dempsey.

HALBRITER HALTS PLANS FOR CHRISTMAS GAME AT COLISEUM
There will be no Christmas Day game at the Coliseum as far as P. H. "Puss" Halbritter is concerned. The local promoter last night called off all plans for a grid contest on that day and also ended negotiations for a December 30 tilt. He had hoped to feature Tusculum High School of Alabama in one of the games but Lincoln High of Nebraska could not come on Christmas Day. The Geneva-Loyola game also fell through. Rather than put on an inferior attraction Halbritter called off all negotiations.

FRANK CAVANAUGH TO COACH FORDHAM TEAM

NEW YORK, Dec. 13. (AP)—Frank W. Cavanaugh, coach of several outstanding football teams during his eight-year reign at Boston College, will guide the destinies of Fordham University for the next three years. He accepted a contract offered him shortly after he resigned at Boston this fall.

Cavanaugh, a major with a brilliant record during the World War, and a graduate of Dartmouth College in 1909, first came into prominence as coach of his Alma Mater from 1910 to 1917. While at Dartmouth he produced several powerful eleven.

MCCARTHY WINS DECISION
BARTFORD (Ct.) Dec. 13. (AP)—Pat McCarthy, Boston heavyweight, received the decision over Harry Persson of Sweden in a twelve-round bout here tonight.

PHIL KAPLAN LOSES BOUT
NEW YORK, Dec. 13. (AP)—Maxey Roenbloom of New York defeated E. O. Phil Kaplan, his fellow-townsmen, among the leading contenders for middleweight boxing honors, in a slow ten-round bout. The match was marred by constant clinching throughout. Only in the late rounds did Roenbloom's mauling style edge him to the fore of his home-town rival. Kaplan staged a rally in the final session, scoring repeatedly with heavy lefts to the head and body, but could not overcome Roenbloom's point advantage. There were no knockdowns.

DUCE'S FOREIGN POLICY CHANGED

Italo-Albanian Pact Crushes
Previous Plans

No Discussion of Colonial or Tunis Questions

Grave Damage Suffered to French Relations

LOZANO (Switzerland) Dec. 13. (Exclusive)—Premier Benito Mussolini's first open plunge into Balkan politics since the understanding with Jugo-Slavia in 1924 has had an immediate crushing effect on the Italian foreign policy. The Italo-Albanian pact which the French and the Lip-the Entente consider to be directed against France's ally, Jugo-Slavia, has succeeded in making impossible the settlement of several outstanding questions which Premier Mussolini had hoped would be soon arranged. There will be no discussion of the colonial arrangements under which Italy had hoped to obtain a mandate somewhere in Africa. There will be no settlement of the Tunis question, where the Italians have been demanding what amounts to extraterritorial rights for the French. The Italo-French relations, already strained, have suffered graver damage than any local incidents would have indicated.

TROOP MOVEMENTS HEINTZ—Italian circles in Switzerland are convinced Premier Mussolini is not seeking an open break with either France or Jugo-Slavia, but the thrust into the Balkans has had a repercussion that the Duce could not have expected. Rumors of the troop movements along the Italian frontiers became definite. Strengthening of border garrisons on both sides of the frontier no longer is denied. French
which every military attaché in Rome, Paris, London and Belgrade has known for the last month became the property of the general public. France, Jugo-Slavia, and Italy merely were concentrating their forces to prepare against possible incidents
which might lead to serious trouble.
It is utterly illogical to believe any
of the nations involved want war.
could fight for any extended period.
Premier Mussolini is in the midst of serious internal problems. A governmental but of a financial nature, and needs peace more at this time than at any period in his career.
He could not think of undertaking a conflict with France without five years of preparation, and the money
does not exist to make possible the intensive sort of preparation required.

It is, therefore, the studied opinion
of European diplomats that the report of the massing of thirty divisions
of Italian regular along the French border is absurdly exaggerated. There has, no doubt, been a large increase in the numbers of Fascist militia and regular troops along the frontier, but they have not attained anywhere near this figure. It is generally held that all the troop movements in this region constitute more of a precaution
against an outbreak than an actual preparation for war.

Premier Mussolini's Balkan policy
quite evidently is directed against France in an attempt to smash the Entente and surround Jugo-Slavia with Italo-Albanian nations. It is even reported that the Italian dictator intends to support the declaration of independence of Montenegro and assist any attempts the Hungarians
might want to make to win back the lost Province of Croatia. Such action
is highly improbable in view of France's firm stand.

But with the possibility of some local incident igniting the tinder and throwing Italy and France into conflict which neither desires, it is interesting to examine Italy's effectiveness. Her regular army consists of 224,000 men, chiefly stationed north of the River Po—either on the French, Austrian or Jugo-Slav frontier. The Fascist militia numbers another 300,000 active troops, chiefly occupied with police duties. With these as a foundation Italy probably could put into the field 1,000,000 men, well
armed and well equipped, within a fortnight after the mobilization order was issued.

Italy's finances today would permit
it to feed such a force and supply it
with ammunition only for the briefest
period. It has no raw materials and not enough food. Any money to finance a war would have to come from the United States or England.
Italy could not carry on its own resources. No one knows this better than Benito Mussolini.

WAR UNTHINKABLE
Seen in the light of common sense
it is unthinkable that Italy could undertake war either with France or Jugo-Slavia, for trouble with one
would certainly draw in the other.
Nor would either of the Allies think of making an attack on Italy. France and its ally will have to credit a smashing, but dangerous diplomatic success in Albania—a success probably achieved with the knowledge and consent of England.

As for the rest, it can be dismissed as another attempt at blackmail
the European powers into making concessions to preserve a peace which can not be seriously threatened—
always remembering that a serious
frontier incident on either the Italo-
French or Italo-Jugo-Slav border
might put the situation beyond the control of the diplomats and rulers
of the three nations.

Senate Buries Geneva Proposal to Outlaw Gas

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13. (AP)—The Senate today sent back to the Foreign Relations Committee the Geneva protocol to outlaw poison gas
as a means of warfare.

The action, which, it is believed,
will indefinitely delay consideration
of the treaty, was accomplished
without a record vote on motion of Chairman Borah of the committee,
and sponsor of the resolution of approval, which had met bitter opposition on the floor.
The American Legion and other organizations had announced opposition to the treaty and Chairman
Wadsworth of the Senate Military
Committee had led a fight against it.

CHILD LABOR HIGHER

Increase in Number Employed Shown
by Report of Bureau

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13. (AP)—An increase in the number of children
industrially employed in nearly all parts of the United States was noted
today in the annual report of Grace
Abbott, chief of the Children's Bureau
of the Labor Department.
Statistics on which the conclusion
was based were gathered in twenty-nine large industrial centers and showed that in twenty-four of these places more children were industri-ally employed in 1925 than in 1924.

At several points the increases
amounted to substantial percentages,
but Miss Abbott attributed the gains
largely to the fact that general business was more active during 1925
than during the preceding year.
England has a campaign against
mushroom schools of acting.

FAKE ADVERTISERS FOUGHT

Trade Commission Opens Determined War on "Cures" and Publications They're In

PHOENIX, Dec. 13. (AP)—A determined fight to exterminate fake advertisements, in the name of the Federal Trade Commission, is being waged by the Federal Trade Commission against the guilty publishers.

"By one action against a magazine we can more effectively throttle fifty fakers than we could possibly do by fifty separate cases against each of the principals," said Mr. Humphrey. He asserted that he could "produce today magazines that in a single issue carry not less than fifty of the vile, dishonest and indecent advertisements."

Mr. Humphrey, member of the commission, in making the statement, pointed out that the commission has been successful in obtaining more than 100,000 copies of the vile, dishonest and indecent advertisements from the publishers.

He also pointed out that the commission has been successful in obtaining more than 100,000 copies of the vile, dishonest and indecent advertisements from the publishers.

PHOENIX, Dec. 13. (AP)—The longest storm ever recorded for December has been experienced here the last ten days.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 13. SAN GABRIEL RIVER DAM WORK URGED

Compton Chamber Adopts Resolution as Result of Expose in "The Times"

COMPTON, Dec. 13.—Assembling in the Chamber of Commerce headquarters at a specially called meeting this afternoon, directors of the Compton Chamber of Commerce adopted a resolution urging immediate construction of the dam at the forks on the San Gabriel River, for which a county-wide bond issue of $25,000,000 was voted two years ago. Action of the Compton commercial organization was taken after publication of facts, appearing in the Los Angeles Times of the 12th and 13th inst., revealing the opposition of powerful interests in interfering with work of construction, according to Secretary George F. Larsen.

"Since conditions governing the interference of work on the San Gabriel River project have been unfavorable in their true light by the press, the Compton Chamber of Commerce believes this is the proper time to give impetus to the campaign," Larsen said.

Copies of the chamber's resolution were forwarded to the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, the county Board of Supervisors, The Times, and to each of the city administrations and chambers of commerce of all communities affected by the project. The regular meeting of the chamber will be held Thursday at 12:15 p.m.

California que se Pega un Tiro en el Capitolio de Washington

WASHINGTON, Diciembre 13.—Los visitantes tempraneros del Capitolio oyeron esta mañana una nota asombrosa de tragedia, y que por el momento tendió su luctuosa sombra por sobre la febril actividad de las oficinas de gobierno. Al final de la mañana, y justamente a un lado de la rotunda, se disparó un tiro John W. Caldwell, de Berkeley, Cal., veterano de las guerras indias y de la guerra española, infligiéndose una lesión probablemente mortal.

Nadie lo vio disparar el tiro; pero la detección de la pistola, que se recuperó en los largos corredores de mármol, sobrecogió a senadores y diputados, que se dirigían presurosamente a sus oficinas, y no tardó en verse el encojido cuerpo del suicida rodeado de gran muchedumbre de visitantes del capitolio.

Caldwell estaba aquí asilado en el hospital del Hospital de Soldados. Esta mañana temprano se levantó de su cama, y emprendió directamente el camino del capitolio. Escogió un sitio que se halla a unos cuantos pies del corredor principal, que conduce del Senado a la cámara de diputados. Se dio allí, con una pistola, un balazo en la sien, y, en opinión de los médicos, su muerte es cuestión de unas horas. Halláronse los papeles escritos en la bolsa de la americana. Uno decía:

"En estos últimos seis meses he sufrido mil muertes. (Para qué poder más, si la cosa no tiene remedio). El otro, garabateado con lápiz, decía la misma lastimera nota de resignación:

"Mi salud está perdida, y ya estoy demasiado viejo para recobrarla. No quiero morir a pedradas. Séame misericordioso el juicio de Dios. Tiene el suicida 68 años. Ha dedado instrucciones de que se le notifique a su familia.

GENEVA (Switzerland) Dec. 13. (AP)—Lauding the League of Nations, the existence of which "permits representatives of the governments to confer frequently 'man to man,' instead of depending on cold exchanges of diplomatic correspondence," Foreign Minister Stresemann of Germany today expressed the belief that the World War would have been averted if the statesmen in 1914 had been given as many opportunities of getting together as they have at present through the League.

He voiced this view in commenting to the Associated Press on the success of the negotiations just concluded here which assured the organization of a League system of investigation in place of the International control of German armaments to which his government objected. Remarking that not only France, but all the former enemies of Germany had contributed to this result, he said:

SERMON NOTES HALT THEFT

OAKLAND, Dec. 13. (Exclusive)—Notes for a sermon on crime prevention, found by a burglar who entered the home of Willie F. Snodgrass, adult probation officer of Alameda county, made such an impression on the visitor that he dropped $400 in jewelry and departed.

Here, then, is one great service performed by the League of Nations, which henceforth is destined to be a medium in arranging the affairs of Europe."

The League was necessary and useful for the prompt and harmonious reconstruction of Europe, he asserted, adding: "Europe simply cannot stand another war."

The League security conference and the meetings in Geneva, he went on, have inaugurated a new system of philosophy in statescraft, and this is straight dealing. He paid glowing tribute to all his colleagues, representing other countries, with whom he has been negotiating.

Shelton Initials

BENTON (Ill.) Dec. 13. (AP)—Relatives of "Big Joe" Adams, Mayor of West City, near here, who was shot to death late yesterday by two unidentified gunmen, testified at the inquest today that threats against his life had been made by Charles Birger, leader of one of the Southern Illinois bootleg gangs.

Two previous attempts had been made to kill Adams, who was a supporter of the rival Shelton gangsters, and his death was the ninth in the deadly feud of the coal belt liquor traffic.

The inquest was adjourned until Wednesday, after Gus Adams, a brother of the slain Mayor, said he believed he recognized the handwriting on a note used to decoy the Mayor to his death, where he was shot down. Gus Adams said he desired more time to investigate.

The decoy note bore the initials

NEW YORK, Dec. 13. (AP)—Letters to Santa Claus are a drug on the market these days but one mailed here deserves rescue from obscurity. It said, simply: "Dear sir: Hear the names Vincent, 15; Joe, 13; Tony, 10; Leigis, 8; Maria, 7; Dennis, 5; Marguerite, 3; Mabel, 2."

"JOE."

Joseph didn't cramp his note with specifications as to who wanted what.

"C. S." and one of the gunmen asserted it was from Carl, presumably meaning Carl Shelton, one of the three Shelton brothers, who was recently released from jail under $50,000 bond in a mail-robbery charge.

Burger declared, however, that Adams harbored the rival Shelton gangsters in his home and asserted the Mayor had killed "High Pockets" McQuay and Mayor J. J. Stone of Colp, two victims of the gang war. He also asserted Adams had attempted to trap him by getting him to the scene of a road-house fire where twelve cases of dynamite had been planted, with two men in the woods near by ready to set off the explosive.

Los Angeles RevealedTestimony Shows Forging of American Stamps

VANCOUVER (B. C.) Dec. 13. (AP)—After Tom Fay, a California agent of the Manitoba Refineries of British Columbia, had testified, a royal commission investigating rum running announced tonight that it is considering the advisability of recommending the Attorney-General of British Columbia that four witnesses before it be prosecuted for perjury.

The presence of United States customs and prohibition officials at the hearings was revealed today. Many British Columbia liquor exporters, who are under indictment in the United States, have testified regarding the details of liquor smuggling.

Chi Justice Brown, chairman of the commission, said that the perjury suspects are persons who testified about the disposition of 21,000 cases of liquor aboard the steamer "Clara Motter," which is held in Victoria, B. C. Fay swore that the cargo was consigned to a man named Rodriguez in San Blas, Mex., and not to Monterey, Cal., as the government contends.

AMERICANS LISTED

Fay was asked whether he knew a man called Martinez in Los Angeles. He replied that he met Martinez, who was with "a stool pigeon called Pavlikner."

Martinez is an alias of M. P. Malone, a United States Treasury Department investigator who testified last week that Fay invited him to Los Angeles to purchase part of the Moeller cargo.

Fay gave the commission a list of men he met on a trip to San Francisco and Los Angeles. He said they were under indictment in the United States and that he had delayed acceptance of a subpoena to appear before the commission because he wanted to shield the American men.

He denied that he was in California to dispose of the Moeller cargo and that he had remitted cash from Los Angeles and San Francisco to the Manitoba Refineries here.

Forging of United States revenue stamps, payments to provincial officials, and contributions to the campaign funds of a Canadian political party by a liquor house also were revealed.

George Relfel, president of the Joseph-Kennedy Company, a liquor house, testified that the concern put United States whisky labels on liquor manufactured in British Columbia.

"And you forged the internal revenue stamps of the United States and placed it on the bottles," Counsel Howell of the commission asked.

"Yes," Relfel said.

PERJURY MATTER

Howell introduced in evidence pink vouchers torn in two, which he declared represented payments by the Kennedy company to provincial officials. Auditors for the commission discovered the vouchers, which then disappeared, and reappeared today, torn in two. Upon objection of the counsel for Relfel that the questioning regarding the vouchers was not matter for the commission, Chief Justice Brown said: "If the business of this company is going to be carried on by purchasing immunity from provincial government officials, it is certainly a pertinent matter for inquiry."

F. R. Anderson, counsel for the Consolidated Exporters of British Columbia, a firm engaged in supplying liquor to United States bootleggers, testified that $10,000 was paid by the concern December 21, 1925, to the campaign fund of the Liberal party. The check was handed to the man who was recognized as the leader of the party in Vancouver, Anderson said.

Anderson insisted that there was no connection between the release of a Consolidated ship, held by the government at that time, and the campaign contribution.

Tailor Made Sets Become Exhibits in Chicago Trial of Rum-Plot Case

CHICAGO, Dec. 13. (Exclusive)—Terry Druggan, the millionaire bootlegger, who a few years ago was the leader of the notorious "valley gang" of thugs and thieves, sat in Federal Court today virtually toothless and somewhat uncomfortable, while his expensive array of tailor-made teeth were passed in review before the jury which is trying him, along with Sheriff Hoffman and Frankie Lake, his chief lieutenant, on a charge of conspiring to defeat justice.

Druggan was supposed to be in jail under a Federal court sentence for contempt of court, but it was shown that he merely used the comforts of the jail, its telephone to conduct his bootleg business, and its hospital in which to sleep the few nights he spent there. Evidence brought out showed that he had been permitted to make between eighty and ninety visits to a dentist during the year he was supposed to be in jail.

"He was a mighty bad patient," said the dentist. "He lacked nerve and frequently had to lie down an hour or so to compose his nerves."

The court asked Druggan if he was wearing the teeth made for him and ordered him to pass them along for inspection by the jury.

The specifications call for speed that will enable the run to be made in six days. One will be christened the Bremen and the other the Europa. Bremen and Hamburg firms have each been awarded contracts for one vessel. The last word in machinery and luxurious furnishings have been ordered for the new ocean grayhounds.

What is a Guaranteed First Mortgage Certificate?

MORE or less frequently investors
whose attention has been occupied with other forms of investment,
ask the above question. Here is a simple definition:

A Guaranteed First Mortgage Certificate,
as issued by the Mortgage Guarantee Company, is a certificate of ownership of an un-
divided interest in a group of conservative,
diversified first mortgages on improved and
income-producing properties whose State-
approved appraisal values are at least double the aggregate face value of the said
mortgages and of the Certificates issued against them.

These Certificates bear interest at the rate of 6%, are free from State, County,
and Municipal taxes in California, are issued in denominations of $100 and multiple thereof, are guaranteed as to both
principal and interest by the Mortgage Guarantee Company, and are legal investment for National, State and Savings Banks. They are purchased largely by banks, insurance companies, trust estates,
and private investors whose requirements
are the most exacting in the entire field of investment.

A descriptive booklet will be gladly mailed
upon request.

THE TONE OF METAL TRADE LANGUID

Review Says Trend of All Groups Downward

Expects Buying to Remain
Slow for Some Time

Exports of Copper Showing
Slight Improvement

BY CHARLES F. WILLIS

Extreme quietness marks the copper, lead, zinc and silver markets
with prices generally on the downward trend, although the producers
seem to feel that the bottom has been hit on copper and silver and
that zinc and lead are likely to remain about as they are. Buying in all metals is quiet and is expected to remain slow until after the holidays,
as it is the approach of inventory
time and this has generally been accompanied by slow buying.

Zinc sales are running small with
the sellers indisposed to cut prices to attract business, as they are well sold out on their current production. But little activity is sold for January delivery.

Silver is more steady due to the fact that India has been doing some buying, but it does not help the situation much to feel that there is any increase in silver in India, as the report of the royal commission is accepted and the buying of India has in no way decreased the uncertainty.

While the A. S. and E. have maintained their contract price for lead
at 8 cents, there have been numerous sales made below that level. Lead
is getting a reflection of the slackening of business operations, as the slump in buying is coming from manufacturers of plumbers' supplies.

Lead has not gone ahead during 1926 as it did during the two previous years. Gains of about 13 per cent were recorded for each of the years of 1924, 1925 and 1926, while the gain for 1926 will be only about 8 per cent with an average price for the year less than it was "last year."

Present Congress Session
Not Expected to Enact Unfavorable Legislation.

BY RALPH HENDERSHOT

(Copyright, 1926, by New York Evening Post, Inc.)

NEW YORK, Dec. 13. (Exclusive)—

A certain amount of apprehension on the part of investors is usually present
at the beginning of any new session of Congress. The reasons are obvious and manifold. However, in view of the fact that the Congress
which convened last Monday will remain in session only until March 4, 1927, it is regarded as unlikely that much in the way of unfavorable
legislation will be passed.

President Coolidge has indicated
he will ask for further reduction in income taxes, either direct or indirect, and in this he will have the support of Secretary Mellon. From the agricultural regions comes reports that vigorous efforts will be made to secure passage of legislation favorable to the farmer.

Both are big questions and if the speculators of the past sessions may be accepted as a criterion, are apt to occupy the full attention of the legislators for the next three months.

A reduction in income taxes, if it takes place, will be favorable from the investor's point of view. President Coolidge's policy of economy
and other facilities needed by the public-utility company. Virtually an absence of more than 1000 hours of the actual construction of such facilities under their direction and control.

As a result of the interest aroused
by recent criticism of the legislature should become a topic of lively discussion during the next year
or so in both financial and political circles.

At 3-4, both stocks closing at the top. Ford was run up on 23 3-4 to 36 and then eased to 35, up 3 1-2, while Mack Trucks, Federal Motor Trucks, Packard and White showed net gains of 1 1/2 to 3 points. Buick also closed nearly a point higher, despite reports that Detroit dealers had cut prices of various models. United States Steel, Allied Chemical, Baldwin, Woolworth and International Harvester, which were prominent on the up-side last week, all lost ground today. Over a score less, however, were elevated to new high levels for the year, the list including the three Wilson Company stocks, Cudahy Packing, Owens-Illinois, Phillips Petroleum, Olin, Elevation, Detroit Edison, Corn Products Refining and South Porto Rican Sugar, Texas and Pacific Land Trust, which ordinarily changed hands in twenty share lots, jumped 150 points to a new record high for all time at 1440, or nearly 300 per cent above the year's low of $10.

RAILS STEADY
Prospects of steady dividend developments on several leading carriers within the next few months had a steadying influence on the rail shares. Pere Marquette was up 4 points to a new high at 123, but lost more than half its gain.

Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged. The principal commodity markets were firm. Some of the active wheat futures were marked up a cent, or so a handful on expectations of a decrease in the visible supply of the commodity. Cotton closed 8 to 12 points net higher on short covering inspired by firmer foreign markets. Raw sugar advanced 1-8 of a cent a pound, but coffee prices fell generally.

Foreign exchanges were firm. A sharp advance of over 10 points in Italian lire, which crossed 460 cents to a new high for the year, was the feature. French francs held firm just below 4 cents, and demand sterling was again quoted around $4.90 1/2.

Offered to stockholders at $50 a share, at the rate of 101 per cent of their holdings as of November 7, had Lehman Brothers and E. H. Rollins & Sons are heading a syndicate which is offering $2,000,000 city of Houston (Tex.) bonds, of which $1,200,000 are direct obligations of the city and $800,000 are water-revenue bonds. A Bulgarian refugee loan of about $2,500,000 is proposed to be offered in the near future in the world's markets under the auspices of the League of Nations, and of which a portion may be sold to the American investment public.

Securities aggregating $18,700,000 are scheduled to be sold by the Los Angeles City Council today and are expected to be offered during the balance of the week.

Progress and Prosperity

When you buy public utility securities you are investing not only in tangible assets but also in the progress and prosperity of the nation. Cheap power, light and water, and rapid transportation are essential factors in our economic and social development, and necessarily will so continue.

Public utility securities, because of State regulation of the issuing companies and their protection against harmful competition, represent the highest form of corporate investment.

Are you giving these important facts due consideration in planning your January investment? May we send you our list of choice public utility offerings yielding up to 7.37%? Simply mail your name and address.

DANCERS PRANCE AT LION SEANCE

King of Beasts Hope About Steppers Flop in Routs, Cops Put It Out

A circus ball last evening at the Candelaria Roof produced, police reported, wild lion on the hoof. A trainer leaped on the lion from his confining cage and the aged brute, offended, gnashed toothless gums in rage.

Christopher and Buxton, two coppers, broke, scum, heard rumors of that lion and trotted to the scene.

"Cage up that mucky critter, this ain't the Desert Gobi," they roared at Trainer Nelson. "He might have hydrophobia."

So Nelson cages the lion, while the men press a shove. And the dancers, freed of danger black bottomed over the floor.

WARRANT OUT IN BRIDE DEATH
Murder Charged as Result of Fatal Beating
Search for Missing Mate
Shifts to Los Angeles

Evidence Shows Suspect Deceived Wife
LONG BEACH, Dec. 13.—Without waiting for the outcome of the autopsy performed here this afternoon on the body of Mrs. Cornelia B. Murphy, Fresno music teacher, Dep. Dist. Atty. Clark today issued a warrant for the dead woman's husband, Lee Daniel Murphy, charging murder in the first degree. Detectives armed with the warrant left for Los Angeles to run down clues furnished them by San Francisco police. Murphy is accused of having beaten his wife on the night of November 30 in a local apartment house. She died Saturday.

Murphy was accused by his wife prior to her death, of having administered a terrific beating to her in their Long Beach apartment, 3010 East Third street. Revolving details of the treatment accorded the pretty young bride by her husband were related by Mrs. Murphy to her mother, Mrs. Augustus Butties, and to Mr. and Mrs. John Welch, 1000 Elm avenue, friends of the dead girl.

BASED ON GIBBY'S STORY
"The case is plainly one that warrants a verdict of guilty and a hanging sentence," Dep. Dist. Atty. Clark said today. "Investigators from my office did not obtain a formal statement from Mrs. Murphy at the time the case was reported to us because we did not believe the young woman was going to die. A warrant charging her husband with assault was issued but there was nothing to indicate that a more serious charge would develop. Her death on Saturday was very sudden and unexpected."

The chief evidence against Murphy, who fled from Long Beach on the day following the attack, is the testimony of the girl's mother and Mr. and Mrs. Welch. Inquiries indicated included a lower jaw broken in two places, a badly lacerated back resulting from a falling with the back end of a belt, internal injuries due to a kick in the abdomen, and other injuries said to have been inflicted by a liquor bottle.

Murphy fled on the 1st inst. When the warrant was turned over to police for service, no detailed statement of the case accompanied it and the warrant was handled in a routine manner, having been forwarded to Los Angeles police for service in the belief that Murphy could be found in that city, local police declare.

OTHER WOMAN ENTERS
Records of the San Francisco police show that Murphy, four days after the asserted attack, visited a woman known as Mildred Merrill, at the Rodema Hotel, in the Bay City, and that the pair left there together, after stating to the woman's mother that they were going to Southern California. The woman, San Francisco police learned, had stated at various times that she was Murphy's wife.

Various clues were being run down by police today and additional bulletins containing Murphy's description, the number of his automobile and other information, were being rushed to police all over the Pacific Coast.

Because of the nature of the attack and the details of it that were related by the girl before her death, feeling against her husband here is running high and threats of summary action by irate men in the event Murphy is captured and returned to the City Jail here were heard on the streets. Extra precautions will be taken by local police in the event the fugitive is brought back to Long Beach.

MURPHY NOT GRADUATE OF WISCONSIN SCHOOL
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13. (Exclusive)—While police here were engaged tonight on redoubled efforts to trace Lee Daniel Murphy for the honeymoon murder of beautiful Cornelia Butties Murphy of Fresno, it was learned that Murphy's "high pressure" tongue had told a few newly established falsehoods to the bride as he accused of fatally beating at Long Beach. Murphy, according to word received here, is not an alumnus of the University of Wisconsin, as he told Miss Butties while wooing and winning her, nor is he a member of Alpha Delta Phi. Word to this effect was obtained from officials of the Badger institution.

With the formal issuance of a murder complaint against the erstwhile automobile salesman, San Francisco authorities co-operated in a new move to pick up Murphy's trail from the time he left here the 4th inst.

The trunk of his asserted second wife, Mildred Merrill Murphy, is still held as security for an unpaid bill at a Geary-street hotel and apartment-house. Murphy is believed to have fled with No. 2 after administering the beating which caused his third wife's death.

Make your gifts a lasting pleasure —not just a remembrance

It is so easy to select Christmas gifts which are just simply a remembrance. But how great the satisfaction when your gift will be useful day in and day out for a long time, giving the recipient a lasting pleasure!

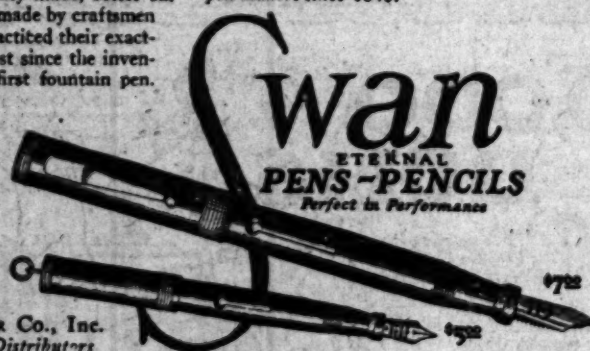

There is scarcely anyone who will not welcome a fountain pen as fine as the Swan. For many years the cultivated people of England and the Continent have used and preferred it, recognizing its superiority.

For the Swan is more beautiful, more finely made, better balanced. It is made by craftsmen who have practiced their exacting art almost since the invention of the first fountain pen.

They work with a superb skill which modern quantity production methods simply cannot equal.

Ask any dealer to show you the exquisite Swan Gift Sets. They are endlessly various and beautiful. You'll be able to select most of your gifts from his stock—and thus have the satisfaction of knowing that you are making gifts of permanent usefulness and beauty.

STILL GASES BLAMED FOR MAN'S DEATH

Leo Price, Found in Garage, Victim of Poison Fumes, Surgeon Finds

Theory of murder in connection with the death of Leo Price, 40 years of age, whose body was found on the second floor of the garage in the rear of 1842 West Seventy-seventh street was yesterday discounted when Autopsy Surgeon Wagner completed a post mortem and pronounced death due to carbon monoxide poisoning.

Detective Lieutenants Lyons and Kirk of Seventy-seventh street division, investigated Price's death. It is pointed out that the fifty-pallion still operated in the room where Price was found, must have generated the poisonous gas. The house on the front of the lot is occupied by Mrs. E. N. Frank, wife of J. E. Frank, convicted bank swindler now in San Quentin; Miss E. Blodgett and Miss Nell Brockett. The last named discovered Price's body.

Search for relatives of the dead man has proved futile.

Young Pasadena Broker to Serve Thirty-day Term

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
PASADENA, Dec. 13.—John R. Miller, Jr., was sentenced to serve thirty days in the City Jail on a charge of intoxication and fined $500 for illegal possession of liquor by Judge Frank C. Dunham in Police Court here today.

Miller began serving his sentence this afternoon when he was sent to the municipal work camp in the Arroyo Seco. The sentence will keep him a prisoner during the Christmas holidays, unless he regularly courted.

Miller, who is 29 years of age and lives at 995 Prospect Boulevard, Pasadena, is prominent in local social circles. His wife appeared in court with him today. The prisoner gave his occupation as insurance broker.

Miller was arrested last Thursday night at California street and Los Robles avenue and was alone in his expensive car at the time. Patrolmen Mason and Potter made the arrest.

At the court's order, Miller today poured the contents of a bottle of genuine prewar champagne into the sewer outside the police station.

SUICIDE BARGAIN GOES AMISS

One Whiff of Gas and Wife Leaves Home in Pajamas, While Husband Slumbers Blissfully on in Alcoholic Haze After Venomous Fumes Were Cut Off

Getting cold feet both literally and figuratively, Mrs. Jeannette Williams, a 35-year-old girl, yesterday turned off the unlighted gas in her home at 7530 Hollywood Boulevard and dashed into the street clad in a pair of pajamas—thus ending what the police declare was apparently a suicide pact.

The other half of the pact was discovered inside of the house in the person of George E. Williams, who last night described himself as a public man. George had "passed out" in a big chair.

"Gas" questioned Detective Lieutenants Beck and Carman, who hurried him to the Receiving Hospital. "No, liquor," declared the attending physician. "Take him away from here."

And about all remained of the pact was to find the pajama-clad Mrs. Williams, who was last seen driving madly away in a roadster, and to read three notes that she would be self-destructive had left for the edification of her relatives and the general public.

Mrs. Williams was discovered late last night at another Hollywood address. She had discarded the pajamas for more conventional garments but was decidedly uncommunicative about her recent desire to leave this world. In fact, she intimated that she had quite changed her mind about the whole affair since getting a strong whiff of gas.

When last seen she was walking firmly down the road with a suit case in one hand while her husband followed at a discreet distance in the roadster, apparently hoping that his conversational powers would soon induce her to join him.

While the couple chose not to discuss their plight, the notes, three in number, that they left at the scene of the tragedy, supplied the police with considerable information.

The first read:

"Kindly notify Mrs. J. A. Williams, 24 West Sixty-ninth street, New York City, and Mrs. J. R. Williams, Murfreesboro, Tenn.—Thanks."

Note No. 2: "Mother and dad, dear: I have nothing to say for the only person that I have ever loved I am killing. May you and God

Judge Thinks Transgressor Has Best of It

It may be true that the way of the transgressor is hard, but in the opinion of Municipal Judge Richardson the way is even harder for the man who legally must determine the punishment to be meted out.

Since the transfer of Municipal Judge Pope to the civil division, Judge Richardson has been called to handle alone the work formerly divided between the two judges. In Police Court Monday, between 9 and 10 o'clock, when his regular court opened, fifty-seven charges of drunkenness were adjudicated with the usual penalty of $20 or twenty days.

In the same time sixty-seven defendants on vagrancy charges appeared for trial. Ninety-day jail sentences were imposed except in case of first offenses, whose sentences were suspended.

Next opening his court in Division 8 Judge Richardson disposed of eighty-seven complaints charging gambling, each of the defendants paying $10 fines. Following this, the calendar contained forty-six cases, including battery, petit larceny, labor-law charges and disturbing the peace.

Testimony in Crossan Plane Case Due Today

First testimony is scheduled to be taken today in the case of Carroll E. Crossan, charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Madeline J. Kupfer, 14 years of age, and Lillian A. Normandin, 13, who were killed while bathing at Venice on July 31, last, when an airplane Crossan was operating landed in shallow water.

Crossan is being defended in court by Attorneys Paul Schenck, Leo Silverstein and J. Calvin Brown. The aviator claims that his engine stopped and he was unable to select his landing place. The case is being prosecuted by Dep. Dist. Atty. Cosello and Van Cort. Relatives of the two deceased girls are expected to be the first witnesses. A jury for the case was selected yesterday.

STAR SIGNS NEW CONTRACT

Aileen Pringle to Remain With Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer; Bebe Daniels Dares to Ride Horse in Next Film; Sennett Columboosing Again

BY GRACE KINGOLLEY

Having returned from New York after an absence of a year, Aileen Pringle not only has beaten Joseph

Hergesheimer at a number of games of dominoes, but she has made another achievement in a professional way.

Miss Pringle not to keep you in suspense, yesterday signed a new four-year contract with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, according to the announcement of Irving O. Thalberg.

So far no announcement is made as to what Miss Pringle's first vehicle will be, but it is likely to be made important, as she has lately been distinguishing herself.

While in the East Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer loaned Miss Pringle to First National and to Paramount. She has been appearing in various pictures with both companies.

Bebe Daniels' Jinx Off
Neither the Prince of Wales nor Bebe Daniels having fallen off a horse in some time, Miss Daniels at least is taking heart of hope to believe that she is off her jinx.

So much so that in her next starring picture for Paramount she is going to do a lot of difficult and fancy riding.

The name of the picture is "Mile Jockey," and is from the stage play by Benj. Franklin. The piece recently was played in Paris to tremendous success.

This will complete what you might call a set of three athletic pictures for Miss Daniels. In "Stranded in Paris" she had to drive a wild horse, in "The Campus Flirt" she had to do a lot of sprinting, and now she is going to do some extraordinary horseback riding.

As a matter of fact, Miss Daniels is an extremely fine horsewoman, she having been a fearless rider ever since she was a little girl.

No director or cast is yet ready for announcement in connection with the picture.

Universal Preview for Hoot
Universal has bought three more stories for Hoot Gibson. Two are by Peter B. Kyne. They are entitled "The Lion and the Lamb" and "Bread Upon the Waters."

Eason will direct both. The other story reposes in the title of "The Tidy Toward."

The lively Hoot has just finished "The Buckaroo Kid."

Mock Sennett Discovers
Never a year passes without Mack Sennett stepping out and discovering at least one new way of concealing a comedian.

Last year Sennett took Langdon from the stage and developed one of the biggest box-office attractions in the comedy field.

Now this year he takes another stage star to develop in the person of Eddie Quillan, stage comedian, who was discovered by Sennett while he was touring the Orpheum circuit with a company composed of his brothers, John and Buster, and his sister Marie.

Eddie was signed to a long-term contract just eight months ago and was immediately starred with Alice Day. Now after eight months of hard work to prove to Sennett that he had reasons for the faith shown in him, he is working on the first of a series of comedies depicting the love affairs of the modern youth, in which he will be starred.

Quillan is only 20 years of age, the youngest comedian ever featured by Mack Sennett.

Law Lipton, Signe
Law Lipton, who wrote the original story and screen adaptation of "Red Panta," which is to be directed by Edward Sedgwick, has been given a new contract which will retain his services exclusively with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. It was announced last yesterday by Irving O. Thalberg.

Lipton is now writing an original comedy called "Blue Birds," which is also to be produced by M.-G.-M. at an early date. He collaborated with Al Cohn on "Prize Gaily Love," which is to be William Beaudine's initial directorial effort for M.-G.-M.

and also with Edward Sedgwick on the original story, "Tin Hats."

Matthall Plays Lead
Jack Matthall will play the lead in Charles R. Rogers' production for First National Pictures, tentatively titled "The Road to Romance." This fact was made known today by John McCormick, general manager for West Coast production. The actor has just completed the leading male role opposite Colleen Moore in "Orchids and Ermine."

Twelve Collegiate Chosen
The happy six boys and six girls who will play the roles of the college chums, respectively, of George Lewis and Dorothy Gulliver in "The Collegians," written by Carl Laemmle, Jr., have been chosen by Universal. They were picked from more than 400 candidates. The proud players are Summer Gatchell, Gordon Cufford, Charles Hammond, Ronald Nardell, Robert Seiler, Richard Maynard, Jr., Charlotte Collette, Isabel Look, Elmer Frederick, Gladys Quartard, Florence Allen and Odell Deville.

The players will spend with stars at Hollywood, where they will be directed by the story of which they are part.

Pola Negri Vacations
Pola Negri, Paramount star, has gone to Del Monte for a couple of weeks' rest. It is quite likely that she may not return until after the first of the new year.

Walter Miers Returning
The last comedian spent a week in New York, where he visited with friends and enjoyed the latest show. From Gotham he journeyed to Detroit, where for two weeks he officiated as master of ceremonies at the Michigan Theater, newest amusement house in the city.

Miers' latest screen role was in Universal's "The Wrong Mr. Wright," which has not as yet been released. He has several offers pending and will shortly resume work before the camera.

Fortune Telling Note
That that Corinne Griffith's contract with First National is drawing to a close, every one seems a likelihood.

Despite First National's option on her services, she may sign with some other firm.

The option is said to give to Miss Griffith the right to demand a $50,000 first National advance for her services.

It is also said that she may sign with some other firm.

MENTAL TEST FOR LOWRY

Murder Complaint Names Man Taken From Gas Filled Room Where Mother Met Death

Dr. Paul Bowers and Dr. Victor Parkin, alienists, were sent to the General Hospital yesterday to examine the mental condition of Harold K. Lowry of 1183 East Mariposa street, Altadena, who was taken from a gas-filled room in which his mother lay dead last Saturday afternoon.

Lowry admitted yesterday to Deputy District Attorney Egan that he had attempted suicide and wished to take his mother with him, according to Egan. A murder complaint was issued against Lowry.

An inquest will be conducted at the Reynolds & Eberle mortuary, Pasadena, at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow.

"Mother was half asleep when I turned on the gas," Egan quoted Lowry as saying, "and knew nothing about it. I did not tell her I intended to take my life. But we had been peering through a bedroom window when he found the house locked and got no answer to knocks.

SANTA FE REPORTS INCREASE IN TRAVEL

A gain in tourist and other travel to California of 12 per cent for this year over 1935 was announced by James R. Duffy, general passenger agent of the Santa Fe. "Conditions are favorable for a heavy travel the remainder of the winter," said Mr. Duffy, "and from inquiries and reservations it can be said that the rush will be well under way just after the holidays. The Santa Fe is spending more money in advertising its new fast de luxe train, the 'Chief,' and the other five transcontinental trains daily, than ever before. The advantages of a winter in California are being set forth in the most attractive manner in the leading newspapers and magazines of national circulation."

HOW TO TURN ON FOUR BUTTONS

Safety Bureau Explains New Traffic Plan in Talk Over KRLD

Advantages of the new "four-button system" were explained in the daily traffic talk given yesterday over KRLD by the police bureau of public safety.

"For years," the radio speaker stated, "we have been required, in making left turns, to turn the traffic button in the center of the intersection, thus causing us to cut through the line of traffic from the opposite direction. The driver turning left had likewise to cut through our line of traffic."

"The four-button system allows you to star, your turn after reaching the first button and proceed to the second button, passing the other machines upon your right. Neither driver need stop and machines need not run around each other, but pass without interference."

"The four-button system will be installed over the entire city, but your co-operation will be necessary until completion by complying when you still find the single button."

Market Awaits Final Dividend Disbursements

Moody's weekly review of financial conditions in its current issue says in part:

"The market apparently is becoming more dependent upon the year-end disbursements of the government, and is deriving less support from the trade returns from leading industries. These are becoming noticeably spotty."

"Bank loans are still showing no tendency to overexpand, and the crop moving and autumn trade are now so far advanced that in the natural course of events we should not fear any overexpansion of loans prior to the autumn of 1937 at earliest. General indications of probabilities are that it ought not to be expected then. Accordingly, the bond market remains in a very strong position."

"The profits of industrial companies during the first nine months of this year show an average increase of about 32 per cent, as compared with a gain only about 5 per cent in the volume of general trade and production. Thus extra-high operating efficiency is implied."

Obsequies for Merchant to be Read Tomorrow

The funeral service for Kollman Hersberg, 65 years of age, resident of Los Angeles twenty-one years, who died at the Barton Sanatorium at Menlo Park, Cal., will be conducted at the W. C. Draper Company's mortuary, 1430 South Main street, tomorrow at 10 a.m. with interment in the Mt. Zion Cemetery. Rabbi Winkler of the Congregation Beth Israel will officiate.

Mr. Hersberg leaves his widow, Emma Hersberg, and the following children: Adolph, Harry, Dave, Frances and Mrs. A. M. Stinson, all of Los Angeles; Louis of Louisville, Ky.; Nathan of San Pedro; Mrs. A. Lukin of Chandler, Mrs. J. Karnoff of Prescott, Ariz., and Mrs. E. Bergin of San Diego.

Mr. Hersberg came to Los Angeles in 1900 and for many years was in the meat business.

Failure to Aid Charge Against Girl Dismissed

Charges that she had failed to stop and render aid after the car she was driving had collided with another machine, yesterday were dismissed against Miss Edith Michaux, 24 years of age, by Municipal Judge Blake at the request of Dep. Dist. Atty. Marchetti.

Mr. Marchetti declared he will ask that a reckless-driving complaint be issued.

Miss Michaux, who lives at 1900 West Ninth street, was arrested on the 2nd inst. after her automobile is said to have collided with the car of Joseph Tallman, 2810 1/2 Penn. avenue. The latter's car was turned over and the girl was captured after a two-block chase, according to testimony at the preliminary hearing.

Desertion Given as Grounds in New Haack Suit

A new suit for divorce was filed yesterday against Mrs. Amber F. Haack, by her husband, Henry A. Haack, who appeared against her in court last week to charge her with undue friendliness with Murray Smith, fellow coed against her in connection with proceedings over the custody of their 6-year-old daughter, Amber.

By stipulation, Mrs. Haack was allowed to keep the child with her, on the provision that she have nothing to do with any man, and the original divorce suit was dismissed. Haack then filed his new suit, charging desertion.

"Times" Staff Correspondent

LONG BEACH, Dec. 13.—The decision of the State Board of Health to place the outfall of the metropolitan sewer on Terminal Island, just off Long Beach, will be attacked here today, it was declared here today. It was declared here today that the outfall to have been placed on the island would be a disaster to the city. City Manager J. H. Dyer said today, following a meeting of the State Health Board at Sacramento.

He said that the outfall to the island is an appeal to the State Board of Health and the Public Health Service based on claims that the outfall on Terminal Island would be a disaster to the city. The board has the health of the 20,000 or more people on the island as its basis for the decision.
